General Eligibility Criteria

Status
- U.S citizen, permanent resident or meet AB540 criteria
- For FAFSA, Permanent SS# (Parents do not need a SS#)
  - For CalDreamAct, no SS# is required for student or parent
- Males between ages 18-25 registered for Selective Service
- Received HS Diploma or equivalent: GED, CHSPE, Homeschooled

Enrollment
- BOG Fee Waiver & Pell Grant will pay as low as ½ unit
- FSEOG, FWS, DL, Chafee & Cal Grants require at least halftime status
- EOP/EOP&S requires full time status (with exceptions)
- Must be enrolled in an eligible program of study
Satisfactory Academic Progress

- Must complete 2/3 of units attempted cumulatively
- Must maintain a 2.0 ‘C’ GPA
- 2 consecutive terms of poor SAP can lead to Disqualification of aid
  - Financial Aid Appeal
    - Have ‘lifetime’ limits per college – usually 3 maximum (some only allow 1)
    - Must indicate extenuating circumstance; documentation
    - Complete terms of appeal decision; attend SAP session if required

- While changing colleges might seem like a fresh start, you can get caught up in UEH = Unusual Enrollment History; you may have to explain why you’ve changed colleges 2-3 times in same number of years

- BOG Waiver now relies on Institutional SAP (50% compl., 2.0GPA)

Questions About Assets

Investments include real estate (do not include the home you live in), trust funds, UGMA and UTMA accounts, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, etc.

Investments also include qualified educational benefits or education savings accounts (e.g., Coverdell savings accounts, 529 college savings plans and the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition plans). For a student who does not report parental information, the accounts owned by the student (and/or the student’s spouse) are reported as student investments in question 41. For a student who must report parental information, the accounts are reported as parental investments in question 89, including all accounts owned by the student and all accounts owned by the parents for any member of the household.

Investments do not include the home you live in, the value of life insurance, retirement plans (401[k] plans, pension funds, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.) or cash, savings and checking accounts already reported in questions 40 and 88.

Investments also do not include UGMA and UTMA accounts for which you are the custodian, but not the owner.

Investment value means the current balance or market value of these investments as of today. Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Business and/or investment farm value includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, inventory, etc. Business and/or investment farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used as collateral.

Business value does not include the value of a small business if your family owns and controls more than 50 percent of the business and the business has 100 or fewer full-time or full-time equivalent employees. For small business value, your family includes (1) persons directly related to you, such as a parent, sister or cousin, or (2) persons who are or were related to you by marriage, such as a spouse, stepparent or sister-in-law.

Investment farm value does not include the value of a family farm that you (your spouse and/or your parents) live on and operate.

Net worth means current market value minus debt. If net worth is negative, enter ‘0’

Calculating Financial Aid Eligibility

- Basic Equation of Need (Eligibility)

  The financial aid application is trying to determine your family’s financial strength & ability to contribute to your education, your EFC

  \text{Cost of Attendance (COA)} - \text{Expected Family Contribution (EFC)} = \text{Eligibility for Need-based Aid}
  \]
Calculating Financial Aid Eligibility

Applying for Aid

- When applying to an institution, a student should ask the following:
  - What forms does the institution require?
  - In addition to the FAFSA, does the school require the completion of an institutional form?
    - For example, CSS Profile
    - Verification documentation
  - What are the filing deadlines for each form?
  - What type of deadline?
