SCHOOL PROFILE 2019-2020

Andrew P. Hill High School is a comprehensive 4-year high school located in the Eastside of San Jose. In this area, there are many multiple-dwelling homes, apartments, condominiums and single-family homes. The parents represent a work force of mostly blue-collar and few white-collar workers. More than sixty-five percent of our students come from families whose income qualifies them for the free or reduced lunch program and/or Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). The socio-economic groups reflect lower/middle income families. Andrew P. Hill is an IB school which offers college-preparatory curriculum.
